BOYS' FRIEND PAYS VISIT TO SCHOOLS

Mrs. L. W. Owen of Los Angeles Spends Day in El Paso; Has Lectured to Children 40 Years,

Mrs. L. W. Owen, of Los Angeles, Mrs. 1. W. Owen, or Los Angeles, Calif., spent Monday in El Paso, visit-ing the city schools with superinten-dent R. J. Tighe, whom she knew a number of years ago. Mrs. Owen is the state president of the California Amer-ican Boys' club, and is greatly inter-ested in everything that concerns chilested in everything that concerns children.

The American Boys' club is conducted upon similar lines as the boy scouts, but is for a younger class of boys, beginning with the six year old youngsters and keeping them until they are about 12 years old.

Mrs. Owen has been lecturing on things concerning children for the past 40 years, and in her trips through the country in the interest of children she has crossed the continent 20 times, been abroad twice, and traveled all through Canada.

Mrs. Owen made brief speeches to the children in the classes she visited.

Midland, Texas, March 23.—After traveling 2000 miles, being sold from ranch to ranch in Texas, shipped to Oklahoma, for feeding and finally reaching the A. & M. college farm in Oklahoma, cattle sold in Midland and raised on the "C" ranch, topped the market for price in Oklahoma.

The cattle were coming twee and were originally sold by William Bryant of Midland. They were bred on the Nalson Morris ranch here and when they reached the Kansas City market they were seen by W. W. Byans, superintendent of the A. & M. college farm in Oklahoma, who bought them for the college farm because of their uniformity in age and weight.

The cattle fed on indian corn and kaffir sliage brought the highest price, $8.65 a hundred. These cattle weighed on an average of 1274 pounds in the stockyards here. The cattle fed on straight kaffir corn slleage brought $2.25 a hundred and weighed 1182 cuch. Sales of coming yearlings have been made at Midland during the past week at $22 around. One shipment of 1200 was made to Missouri at that price.

E. Gverstreet, of Callfornia, has bought a number of young cows from W. S. Eikin at $65 around. He also bought from W. F. Cowden 122 coming two year old steers at $47 around, and from Bryant and Elkin Bros., 400 coming yearlings at $34.

Another purchase made by Overstreet created a sensation. From William Bryant he bought 1300 steers, all coming yearlings of the polled Angus breed, for which he paid $39 around. G. F. Cowden & Son have soid to W. N. Pence 25 head of polled Angus black muley cattle, and to Coke Vest 40 head of the same kind of cattle.

Henry was in Artesia on his way to his ranch, accompanying a flock of 4000 ewes which had wintered in Crockett county, Texas. He reported that the winter had been ideal for the sheep industry and that as a consequence the ewes were in excellent condition to care for their lambs. He expects to raise more than 20 percent of the crop thig year.

Last year Henry saved 3190 lambs out of a total of 2300 dropped, or about 25 percent. These lambs are now on pasture in Crockett county, Texas, and will soon be shipped to the Kansas City market, where the owner expects to realize $5 per head for them. Henry says that the tariff hasn't hurt him or any other sheepman that he has heard of and he is sanguine about the future of the sheep industry in New Mexico and the Fecos valley.
